Dear Staff and Students,

Welcome back! I hope everyone had a relaxing and enjoyable summer and is well-rested and ready to begin another successful school year. I would also like to take this time to welcome all new staff members; welcome to our team!

As I think about the upcoming school year, I’m very excited about this next chapter we are about to write. I know all of us will remain steadfast to the commitment to our students and strive to continue improving the climate and culture of our school.

I wish everyone success for this brand new school year!

-Principal Nieves

Teacher of the Month

Support Staff of the Month
ATTENTION ALL TEACHERS:

Do you have a student that you believe should be the next Student of the Month??

Every month, one student from each grade will be selected for student of the month, but we need your help! Please fill out the form (to be sent in an upcoming email!) and return to either Ms. Pallotta in Room 126, or Mr. Super in Room 152.

You should keep the following things in mind when considering nominating students:

Academic performance

Effort

Character

Behavior

Social relationships

Attendance

Thank you in advance for your help!
Dear, CAHTS STAFF,

Welcome to the 2017-2018 school year!

In order to make CAHTS Criterion better than ever, we need your help! If you have any news, events, or big things involving the students or the school, please submit those stories to the newsletter.

Contact either:

Ms. Pallotta (jpallotta@paterson.k12.nj.us)

Or

Mr. Super(jsuper@paterson.k12.nj.us)

When submitting stories, please include a short blurb detailing the event and pictures to accompany the article.

All submissions must be sent no later than the 25th of every month in order to be included. Any articles received after that date will be saved for the following month’s newsletter.

Remember the heros, born at ground zero.
Remember the price, so many still pay.
Move on, face forward, but remember the day.
Always Remember 9-11
1. Preheat oven to 350° and grease an 9-x-5" loaf pan. Cut each biscuit in half (through the layers) and brush both sides with melted butter.

2. In a medium bowl, mix together the sugars, cinnamon, and a generous pinch of salt. Coat each biscuit in the cinnamon sugar mixture, tapping off excess.

3. Make your first stack: onto one biscuit, sprinkle a handful of apples and cover with another biscuit. Repeat this process until you have used ¼ of the biscuit dough, ending on apples. Repeat to make 3 more stacks, with the last stack ending on a biscuit.

4. Place your biscuit stacks into the loaf pan on their sides, so the layers stand upright. The stack with the biscuit on top should be at the end.

5. Bake until biscuits are puffy and golden, 38 to 40 minutes. Let cool slightly, then remove from pan.

6. Drizzle with warm caramel and serve immediately.

Caramel Apple Pull-Apart Bread

- 1 tube refrigerated biscuit dough (such as Pillsbury)
- 3 tbsp. unsalted butter, melted
- ¼ c. brown sugar
- 2 tbsp. granulated sugar
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- kosher salt
- 1 c. minced Granny Smith apple
- Warm Caramel, for drizzling

Hope to see you in the café soon!
Seventeen-year-old Molly Peskin-Suso knows all about unrequited love—she’s lived through it twenty-six times. She crushes hard and crushes often, but always in secret. Because no matter how many times her twin sister, Cassie, tells her to woman up, Molly can’t stomach the idea of rejection. So she’s careful. Fat girls always have to be careful.

Then a cute new girl enters Cassie’s orbit, and for the first time ever, Molly’s cynical twin is a lovesick mess. Meanwhile, Molly’s totally not dying of loneliness—except for the part where she is. Luckily, Cassie’s new girlfriend comes with a cute hipster-boy sidekick. Will is funny and flirtatious and just might be perfect crush material. Maybe more than crush material. And if Molly can win him over, she’ll get her first kiss and she’ll get her twin back.

There’s only one problem: Molly’s coworker Reid. He’s an awkward Tolkien superfan with a season pass to the Ren Faire, and there’s absolutely no way Molly could fall for him. Right?

A chemistry student has 0.5 L of a 75% acid solution. She needs a 50% acid solution for an experiment. How much pure water should she add?
Static Electricity Dancing Ghosts and Bats

Here’s what you need:

- balloon
- tissue paper
- markers
- scissors
- tape
- sweater or your hair

Cut out your Halloween shapes from the tissue paper. We chose a ghost and a bat. After cutting out the bat, I colored the white tissue paper with a black marker and waited for it to dry. Tape the bottom of your ghost, bat, or other Halloween shapes to the table.

Rub the balloon on a sweater or a head of hair to gather some extra electrons. Move the balloon over your Halloween shapes. The balloon is attracted to the tissue paper. The tissue paper will rise up. As you move the balloon around, the tissue paper will move as well.
